also, doesn't this entire thread existing inherently break the "no drama" rule?

huh good point, well I don't really have anything to post either, so let's end the thread before it's too late. Better than never!

P.S. If you're personally interested to hear more then DM me on discord or on this forum. "sodaw20"

i talked a lot lmao

no longer have to hide it now that dk is gone. I'm soda, also known as clea. I recently met MilkGuyMG and his friends, and of course "him" too. I'll still won't explain the wrong thing that led me, just because it's very long. you can ask Milk himself. but that asides, According to Julius, your account was hacked early by DontKnow. when someone does stuff that he doesn't like, he either leaks their IP address, or use your account to say N-words, and grief their towns. same thing happened with someone called JettKuda. he was confused with a griefier called KapiTal (which uses same VPN IP address as DontKnow's). you and jett can no longer play on BetaWorld because of sins you never even did.

What the fuck? The shit DK's doing is actually fucking illegal? And Julius didn't ban DK?
